↑ FRANCE In the mood for Paris

Paris Tango (Lantern, $60), lavishly shot by Qantas The Australian Way regular Carla Coulson, is a personal journey into the French capital's heart, exploring haute couture, art, the Moulin Rouge, gardens, the Marais and other aspects of Paris, home to this Australian writer-photographer for the past five years.

Eat Rocks

Sydney's harbourside Rocks precinct now has The Rocks Farmers' Market, a fab, food-mile-aware chance to grab the weekend's lamb, duck and chorizo, organic veg, smoked trout, freshly churned butter and Brasserie Bread. With all stalls staffed by producers and farmers, it can't get more real. Fridays 10am-3pm, Saturdays 9am-3pm, corner of Argyle and George Streets, with a shuttle bus running from Martin Place.
