

Moggs Creek retreat up for prestigious award

BY SARAH LAWRENCE

MOGGS Creek's 'thebeach great ocean road' holiday accommodation has been selected as a finalist in two categories in the third annual TakeABreak Best Places to Stay Awards.

The awards, run by Australia's only independent boutique accommodation travel site, TakeABreak, recognise outstanding service in specialist segment categories.

Just a stone's throw to the beach with breathtaking views overlooking the ocean from every window and deck, the accommodation is some of the most luxurious on the coast.

It also includes sole occupancy of the entire first floor for guests to wake up in the comfort of their king size bed or relax in the huge double spa overlooking the beach.

As well, there are culinary pleasures, with a bottle of wine and cheese platter and chocolates in every room as well as a daily three-course meal.

A highlight for guests is the beautiful resident King Parrots that will eat from your hand during the afternoons.

"We were thrilled to be featured on Visit Victoria's POSTCARDS programme after seven months of operation last year," said owner Pam Taylor.

"To be selected as a state finalist in the top five in two categories of the TakeABreak Best Places to Stay Awards this year is even more exciting... fingers crossed."

The state winners will be announced at the end of the month and the national winners in each category will be named in November.
