

Dam it Getaway a finalist

Local accommodation supplier, Dam It Getaway has been named as a state finalist in its category in the fourth annual TakeABreak Awards.

The awards – run by Australia’s leading independent boutique accommodation site, TakeABreak.com.au – recognise outstanding service in specialist segment categories and provide holiday-makers with great suggestions based on their needs.

Awards were divided into two groups – the accommodation awards and the themed awards.

Being a finalist in the NSW Country, Pet Friendly and Family Friendly award, Dam It Getaway’s Adrian & Bev Price said, “These awards from TakeABreak.com.au are a great recognition of our work, and we are proud to be a state finalist. We strive to provide visitors with exemplary service. It is also a testament to the Gloucester region.
